OVER THE CATABACT.

Particulars of the catastrophe which befell the river steamer Mabel and three other boats, recently, when they were swept over the Tumatumari Falls in the Demarara river, British Guiana, baye just been received at Kingston, Jamaica. It appears that the Mabe left the Potaro landing in the gold bearing district for the landing at the head of the Tumatumari Falls, with three boats in tow. There were 120 passengers altogether. The passage was uneventful until the boats were within 200 yards of the Tumatumari anding, when it was found that the current was likely to carry them befell short and Captain De Camp, a passenger on the steamer, volunteered to swim ashore with it. The passengers then became alarmed and many of them jumped overboard. Some, it is said, got in the way of Captain De Camp who only escaped being drowned by catching hold of a tree. All hope of saving the boats was now past, and, amidst the heart-rending screams of the passengers, they were swiftly swept down to the cataract. As soon as they reached the rapids two of the boats were smashed against the rocks and sank. The rope holding the third boat to the steamer broke and the craft shot through the rapids safely, her occupants being none the worse for their terrible voyage. The steamer, as soon as she got in the rapids, blew up and went under. The cries of the passet-gers at this time were most awfui. The angry waters carried many of them to their doom, their bodies being dashed with great violence against the sharp corsl rocks. Fully one-half of those on the boats were lost, among the victims being Dr. G. C. Tyler, an Englisman who was making a four of the courtry, and J. B. Tays, an American gold miner, who had been prospecting on the Potaro and Minnebaha rivers.

THE CHINESE ARMY. The records of the bureau of military information of the War Department in Washington show that the Chinese army comprises eight banners, with a total nominal strength of 300,000 men. The number maintained on a war footing is from 80,000 to 100,000. The whole force is subdivided into three groups, consisting, respectively, of Manchus, Mongols and Chinese. I forms a sort of hereditary profession. within which intermarriage is compul-sory. About 37,000 are stationed in garrisons in Manchuria. The Imperial Guard at Pekin contains from 6,000 t 7,000. These are the troops that were expected to defend the foreign legations and protect foreign interests from tions and protect foreign interests from the mcbs. The Ying-Ping or national army is also called the Green Flags and the Five Camp. This army consists of eighteen corps, one for each province, under the Governor or Governor General The nominal strength is from 540 000 to 660,000 men, of whom about 200,000 are available for war, never more than one third being called out. The most important contingent is the Tien Tsin army corps, nomigent is the Tien Isin army corps, nominally 100,000 strong, really about 35,000, with modern organization, drill and arms. They are employed in garrison duty at Tien Tsin and at Taku and other forts. Besides these forces there are mercenary troops raised in emergencies and Mongolian and other irregular cavalry, nomidally 200,000 strong, really about 20,000, but said to pe of no military value. The total land army on peace footing is put at 300 000 men and on war footing at 1,000,000. The army as a whole, it is said, has no unity or cohesion. There is no proper discipline. The drill is mere physical exercise. The weapons are long since obsolete. There is no transport, com missariat or medical service.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCardy's drug store and they re-commended Chamberlain's Colic, Choiera and Diarracea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the fixest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shail not be without it in my bome hereafter! for I should not care to endure the suf, ferings of last night again for fifty timeits price.-G. H. QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still bas the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grand mothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bilious ness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the ystem and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard

NOTICE TO CITY TAX PAYEES Collector's Office, June 18, 1900,
Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1900 are now in the hands of the collector.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1900 are now in the hands of the collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1900, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1900, he shall allow a discount of five per cent., and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1900, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent. upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1901, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Tax payers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for your pr. perty, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.
